

Comparative International Studies Degree Learning Outcomes (DLOs):

1. Compare social, political, economic, and cultural challenges in two or more regions
2. Analyze popular narratives about regional differences – in society, economics, and/or politics – using qualitative and quantitative data
3. Read and write at least at the intermediate level in one foreign language
4. Hold a conversation about current events in one foreign language

		DLO 1	DLO 2	DLO 3	DLO 4
Major preparation	Humanities	I	I
	Social Sciences	I	I
	Statistics	I	I
	Regions	IP	IP
	CINTS 400	PD	PD
	Primary & secondary regions	PD	PD		P
Thematic areas	Human & Social Development	IP	IP		P
	Culture & Society	IP	IP		P
	Populations and Borders	IP	IP		P
	Institutions & Change	IP	IP		P
	Foreign language & study abroad	P	P	IPD	IPD

I = students are introduced to the DLO

P = students practice the DLO

D = students demonstrate achievement of the DLO

For the full list of courses that fulfill each of the requirements above, please see our website.